Adult Events — Spring 2019

The Justice Bell Story and the Pennsylvania Women’s Suffrage Movement
Mon., March 25th, 7 p.m.
Amanda Owen, Executive Director of the Justice Bell Foundation, will present the little-known story of how a bronze bell became a celebrated symbol of the women’s suffrage movement. The creation of suffragists in PA who were agitating for the right to vote, the Justice Bell helped rally support around the cause in the last crucial years leading up to the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment.

Our Yard is for the Birds
Wed., April 3rd, 3 p.m.
Join Ruth Pfeffer for a fun and informative program on backyard birds. Do you love the birds in your backyard? This program is for you if you care about birds and want to help them thrive. Get the scoop on what to plant this spring and how to help your favorite feathered friends deal with the challenges of a changing climate. Highlights will include migratory and residential birds that nest in or pass through our area. Ruth will also talk about the importance of native plants and pollinators. The program will conclude with a short talk by the Citizen’s Climate Education.
